THREATEN LIFE.

Letters to Rogers Same as Those Reported Sent to Gotham Police Head.

New York, Dec. 19.—H. H. Rogers of the Standard Oil company received a letter on Sunday in which the writer, who signed himself "A Trader," and described himself as a broker, who had lost heavily on the advance in St. Paul stock, threatened to kill Mr. Rogers. Mr. Rogers' office in lower Broadway was guarded by detectives Monday in consequence, although Mr. Rogers said that night in speaking of the letter that he had not bothered the police about the matter. Mr. Rogers said further that letters of the same character and written apparently by the same person, had been received within the past few days by Police Commissioner Bingham and several other persons.

candy arranged in odd figures, nuts, and a variety of the good things, which tend to make the dinner table attractive on Christmas day. These are arranged on a red background and embellished with red and green trimmings, and from the top is suspended an electrical "Merry Christmas" sign in white and red.

At S. J. Segel & Company's store are shown in the windows an excellent display of gents' furnishings of all kinds, including shirts, hats, caps, gloves, ties, suits, suit cases, and in fact anything and everything possibly needed to dress the male being from head to toe. C. W. Averill & Co.'s window is arranged in steps upon which are displayed to excellent advantage on a white background a fine line of cutlery, skates, nickel and aluminum ware, the whole being trimmed with green holly leaves and red berries, and decorated with long streamers of red, white and green, running to the ceiling and making altogether an extremely attractive display.

L. M. Williams shows in his windows a large variety of wicker and rattan rocking chairs, pictures, both framed and unframed, brass and iron beds, and a full line of Indian basketry in fancy colors, including baskets, hampers and canteens, both useful and ornamental.

The keynote of the window display at L. P. Austin's store is jewelry and kindred lines and shows a fine line from which to make Christmas selections; the display includes jewelry of all kinds, clocks, reading glasses, opera and field glasses, the whole being artistically arranged on a background of dark red, and the pleasing effect being heightened by several dark red Christmas bells suspended from the ceiling.

At A. W. Badger & Co.'s store are shown in the south window art squares and furniture, including a fine oak library table and two large leather upholstered chairs of the kind that make you feel comfortable when you sit in them. In the show window at E. A. ### IN MATTER OF JAPANESE Children Barred from Public Schooling—Appeals to "Heart" of the State in Message to Congress.

Washington, Dec. 19.—The President yesterday sent to Congress the following message relating to the Japanese controversy in San Francisco:

To the Senate and House of Representatives:

I enclose herewith for your information the final report made to me personally by Secretary Metcalf on the situation affecting the Japanese in San Francisco. The report deals with three matters of controversy—first, the exclusion of the Japanese children from the San Francisco schools; second, the boycotting of Japanese restaurants, and, third, acts of violence committed against the Japanese.

As to the first matter, I call your special attention to the very small number of Japanese children who attend school, to the testimony as to the brightness, cleanliness and good behavior of these Japanese children in the schools, and to the fact that, owing to their being scattered throughout the city, the requirement for them all to go to one special school is impossible of fulfillment and means that they cannot have school facilities. Let me point out further that there would be no objection whatever to excluding from the schools any Japanese on the score of age. It is obviously not desirable that young men should go to school with children. The only point is the exclusion of the children themselves. The number of Japanese children attending the public schools in San Francisco was very small. The government has already directed that suit be brought to test the constitutionality of the act in question; but my very earnest hope is that such suit will not be necessary, and that as a matter of comity the citizens of San Francisco will refuse to deprive these

A Live Wire

Every nerve is a live wire connecting some part of the body with the brain. They are so numerous that if you penetrate the skin with the point of a needle you will touch a nerve and receive a shock—pain it is called. Aches and pains come from a pressure, strain or injury to a nerve; the more prominent the nerve the greater the pain. When the pain comes from a large nerve it is called Neuralgia.

whether it be the facial nerves, or the heart, stomach, sciatic or other prominent nerve branch. To stop pain, then, you must relieve the strain or pressure upon the nerves. Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills do this.

"I suffered intense pain, caused by neuralgia. I doctored and used various medicines without getting relief until I began taking Dr. Miles' Anti-Pain Pills. They did me more good than all the medicines I ever used. They never fail to cure my headaches, and their use never leaves me any bad after-effects."

young Japanese children of education and will permit them to go to the schools.

The question as to the violence against the Japanese is most admirably put by Secretary Metcalf, and I have nothing to add to his statement. I am entirely confident that as Secretary Metcalf says, the overwhelming sentiment of the state of California is for law and order and for the protection of the Japanese in their persons and their property. Both the chief of police and the acting mayor of San Francisco assured Secretary Metcalf that everything possible would be done to protect the Japanese in the city. I authorized and directed Secretary Metcalf to state that if there was failure to protect persons and property, then the entire power of the federal government within the limits of the constitution would be used promptly and vigorously to enforce the observance of our treaty, the supreme law of the land, which treaty guaranteed to Japanese residents everywhere in the union full and perfect protection for their persons and property; and to this end everything in my power would be done, and all the forces of the United States, both civil and military, which I could lawfully employ, would be employed. I call special attention to the concluding sentence of Secretary Metcalf's report of November 26, 1906.

Theodore Roosevelt.

COAL LANDS "CORNERED."

Commissioner Clark Makes This Statement.

Washington, Dec. 19.—Interstate Commerce Commissioner Clark appeared before the House Committee on Public Lands today in support of the President's suggestion that the Government cease to sell coal lands and lease them hereafter to mining companies. He reiterated his charge that great corporations in league with railroads have "cornered" coal lands and forced the price up to an unreasonably high point. Mr. Clark in reply to questions said shippers are as much to blame as carriers for the present coal shortage. He said thousands of cars are delayed unnecessarily in large centres by the failure of shippers to unload them promptly. In Mr. Clark's opinion railroads are buying cars and locomotives as rapidly as they can get them.

JAPS FEAR REPRESSION.

Therefore Fleet Now En Route to Honolulu Will Not Visit 'Frisco.

Honolulu, Dec. 19.—The Japanese consul here says that the visiting squadron, which will arrive in Honolulu in February, will not proceed to San Francisco, as originally intended, because a reputation of the Maine disaster is feared, owing to the alleged overwrought condition of American feeling.

"TO BUILD THEIR OWN SCHOOLS."

Japan Papers' Solution of San Francisco Question.

GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY

Notable Event Observed at the Home of an Estimable Northfield Couple Last Evening—Gifts of Gold.

Northfield, Dec. 19.—The golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Loveland was celebrated last evening at their pleasant home on Vine street from 7 to 10 o'clock. That it was the endeavor of the relatives and many friends to the bridal couple to make this one of the happiest events of their long married life was fully demonstrated. The reception room was elaborately decorated in old gold and white; a huge wedding bell hung in the south corner of the room under which the couple received over two hundred relatives and friends. They were introduced by Mr. Loveland's nephew, Dr. Frank Loveland. The dining room, where a dainty lunch was served, was decorated in red and green and the halls in evergreen. Connel's orchestra furnished music during the evening.

Joseph S. Loveland was born in Stoddard, N. H., in 1835. Mrs. Janette Haselton, his wife, was born in Moretown in 1837. They were married in Middlesex in 1856 by the Rev. Aaron Ludd. They went to Morrisville where they lived several years going from here to Ohio coming to Northfield to make their home about 1860. They had five children, three now living and present at the wedding. Samuel Wright Loveland of the firm of Conley & Loveland of Rutland, Harriet, wife of J. M. Bullock and Gilson S. of this town.

Mr. Loveland has followed the occupation of contractor and builder, having erected many of the dwellings and business blocks in town. Mr. and Mrs. Loveland are attendants of the Universalist church of which society Mrs. Loveland has been a very active worker. Mr. and Mrs. Loveland were the recipients of many valuable presents of cut glass and silverware, besides about $150 in gold.
